Dear Parent / Guardian

On Thursday 16 June 2016 England are playing Wales in the Euro 2016 group stage starting at 2.00pm. A few students have asked if we are able to watch the match in lessons. The match starts at 2.00pm and ends at approx. 3.55pm. If your child would like to watch the match in college we will provide this opportunity. They will of course want to see the whole match if they are true supporters and the expectation will be that your child will stay in college to the end of the match (approx. 3.55pm) and they will be supervised by staff. There will also be an expectation that your child will catch up on any work that has been missed by staying behind on the following Thursday, 23 June 2016, from 3.10–4.10pm to catch up on the work missed. In order to identify numbers who wish to watch the match and to ensure that you are giving permission for your child to miss lessons I need a reply slip returned to Internal Reception by 8.45am this Thursday morning at the latest.

If your child is absent for the day on Thursday 16 June the attendance team will be contacting you to ensure that your child is absent due to illness not due to the football match and if necessary a home visit will be made. If your child is absent from college on Thursday 16 June due to the football match any reward trips will be in jeopardy.

I only need a reply slip for those students who wish to watch the match. All other students will be in lessons as normal and will leave college at 3.10pm.

Yours faithfully
